EBSA Revokes ERISA Safe Harbor Rules Pertaining to Certain Non-Governmental Employee Retirement Accounts

Effective June 28, 2017, the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) revoked the rules providing ERISA exemptions for certain non-governmental employee IRAs established by local governments. The revocation results from the enactment earlier this year of Congressional resolutions disapproving the EBSA rules previously issued in 2016, which had created ERISA exemption safe harbors for certain savings arrangements for non-governmental employees established by state governments and qualified state political subdivisions. See Labor Reg. 2510.3-2(h), 82 Fed. Reg. 29236, 6/28/2017.
